

June 24, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FROM: CAMMIE DONALDSON, SPACE COAST PROGRESSIVE ALLIANCE

REF: LEADING CIVIL & HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST ADDRESSES LOCAL GROUP

Bob Kunst, one of America's leading activists for civil and human rights, international anti-Nazi activist and pioneer of social change, will visit Melbourne to address members and guests of the Space Coast Progressive Alliance. Kunst will share his experience as a lifelong political activist and discuss what he feels progressive citizens must do to achieve positive results in the 2006 and 2008 elections.

The Space Coast Progressive Alliance is a nonprofit coalition of individuals and organizations serving to strengthen the progressive voice in Brevard and Indian River Counties. We encourage and promote civic engagement to safeguard America's democracy and promise of liberty and justice for all. SCPA is non-partisan but strongly progressive in our interests and we seek to advance progressive policies at the local, state, and national level. For more information, please visit our website: www.spacecoastprogressivealliance.org

TIME/DATE: 10:30am, SATURDAY, JULY 9

LOCATION: HESTER WAGNER COMMUNITY CENTER, MELBOURNE VILLAGE

Open to the media, SCPA members, and the public BY RESERVATION.

TO RESERVE A SEAT, PLEASE CALL SCPA AT (321) 917-1960 AND SPEAK WITH CAMMIE DONALDSON. All attendees will be checked in at the entrance.

CONTACT: Cammie Donaldson, President
Space Coast Progressive Alliance
Phone: (321) 917-1960
Email: contact@spacecoastprogressivealliance.org
Web: www.spacecoastprogressivealliance.org